

Historic Somerville, ArtsUnion
and the Somerville Historic Preservation Commission Present

The Second Annual Ghosts of Somerville

Sunday, October 29, 2006: 4 PM to Dusk

Join us at the Milk Row Cemetery on the Sunday just before Halloween for our second annual presentation of Ghosts of Somerville. Come learn about Somerville's history in an entertaining and Halloween-related way! This delightful play changes each year as historical research unveils further information about the people interred here. Locally prominent men and women who will visit the audience include Samuel Tufts, Phineas Howe, Osgood Dane, George Bean and Widow Rand. Dress warmly (especially feet, ears and hands) and come in costume if you like. Hot cider and goodies for all!

$5 per Adult

Children under 12 and Seniors over 65: $3

The Ghosts of Somerville is produced by Historic Somerville, Inc. to raise awareness of the cultural treasures of Somerville and funds for their care. If you are unable to come, but wish to contribute or learn more about our organization, please contact: Historic Somerville, 9 Josephine Ave., Somerville, MA 02144. Historic Somerville Inc. is a registered nonprofit corporation in the state of Massachusetts. This program is funded in part by ArtsUnion which is an initiative shepherded by the Somerville Arts Council and funded by the Massachusetts Cultural Council to celebrate the treasures of the Union Square area.

The Cemetery is located next to DeMoulas Market Basket at 400 Somerville Ave., on the edge of Union Square in Somerville. The Cemetery is easily reached by car via I-93 or McGrath Highway, or by bus #86 to Union Square or #87 bus from Davis or Lechmere Stations. For further information contact the Somerville Historic Preservation Commission via 617-625-6600 or bwilson@ci.somerville.ma.us

Mayor Joseph A. Curtatone

www.ci.somerville.ma.us/historicpreservation